USDBF
United States Dragon Boat Federation
National Race Official (NRO) Course

The United States Dragon Boat Federation (USDBF) is the Governing body for Dragon Boat Sport in the United States. This training seminar is the first phase in obtaining your USDBF National Race Official Certificate (NROC).

This course covers race organization, program, racing rules and protocol, and the roles and responsibilities for dragon boat officials.

After you have completed this course and passed a test, you then are required to complete a minimum of two full days of hands-on officiating experience at each station to be considered for National Race Official (NRO) Certification.
